WHAT IS IT?

The Immediate Success KRE-ATOR is perfect for managers and executives integrating into new roles. This one-to-one coaching and mentoring program is designed to accelerate success for new leaders and increase ROI for the business. Research and experience has proven that new hires have 30 days to avoid the leadership graveyard, and building trust within a team and an organization is critical to accelerating success. There are additional advantages to fast tracking success too — the costs of employee turnover to an organization can be as high as a full year's salary.

This customized program is created in collaboration with the employer and can be added into the hiring offer creating significant value. Investing in people up front is a competitive advantage.
