KRE-AT™ enters into exclusive strategic partnership with BM Group of Companies.

Vancouver based KRE-AT™ announces a significant step forward with its global expansion by partnering with BM Group.

The next generation of leadership requires new skills, mentors and coaches not just bosses. KRE-AT™ is pleased to bring to the global market unique innovations in people development. Founder and CEO Tom Dutta said, “we have unlocked the code to creating future leaders by developing them from the inside out. I am delighted to partner with BM Group. Mr. Balraj Mann, Chairman of BM Group is a visionary who knows the importance of investing in people with next generation leadership skills.”

BM Group of companies operations in Canada, USA, and India are vertically integrated providing structural restoration, waterproofing, construction management, materials supply and real estate related businesses. Mann said, “we all know the success of any business depends primarily on its most valuable resource, the people. KRE-AT™ has better equipped us to make intelligent decisions and motivated individuals in our team to reach their full potential. Using their people and character training, online tools, coaching and mentoring, we are growing faster as a company. Our platinum brand and global expansion is perfectly aligned with KRE-AT™.”

Dutta said, “our philosophy is to partner with platinum brands and focus on helping them grow. Unlike many companies, we are strategic in our partnership. We not only provide our services to BM Group, we are on the ground mentors and marketers, helping BM Group grow by leveraging our brand strength in the marketplace. We chose BM Group because of its values and culture... people before profit.”
